

Preface

This Research Report is published by the Institute for Peace Science, Hiroshima University in cooperation with the University of Colombo. This report is intended to explore peacebuilding issues in Sri Lanka. The editor hopes that this research report will enhance our understanding of the issue so that we can better implement peacebuilding activities in the future.